

The Global Science Network Forum workshops series

Enzo Capone
Head of Research Engagement and Support

SA3CC Meeting 2025

6th May 2025

Why are we here?

The idea

- Give the global R&E community more insights
- Help the scientific collaborations shape (or steer) their plans
- Anticipate future trends (scientific, technological, political, etc.)
- Co-develop solutions
- Support each other's mission

Who we are

- We work for an REN or a scientific collaboration
- We care about science
- We work to advance research
- We want to be ready for the future

The Global Science Networking Forum

The plan

- Create a permanent forum
- Periodic face-to-face meetings (every 1 or 2 years?)
- Focus on high-level, long-term strategy and planning
- Continuous exchanges with the technical fora (LHCONE-OPN, SKA SRCnet, etc.)

Kick-off meeting @TNC24

~100 people attending in presence
